The iQ Group Global backs Sydney Hobart contender in a race for change.

16 NOVEMBER 2015

The iQ Group Global has put its support behind a team of Sydney sailors as they prepare to take on this years Rolex Sydney Hobart Yacht Race.

CEO and founder of The iQ Group Global, Dr George Syrmalis, said today "We are proud to partner and support Team Komodo Racing as they continue their journey towards completion of this years Sydney Hobart Yacht Race."

Dr Syrmalis said, "We wanted a platform to raise awareness of our corporate mission at The iQ Group Global, bridging capital with science creating the medicines of the future. The Sydney Hobart Yacht Race embodies many of the values our company lives by and rewards that can only come through team work and a shared vision."

Andrew Butler, Skipper of the Farr40 Komodo said, "We are very excited to be partnering with The iQ Group Global. We look forward to working closely with them to drive awareness of the work they are doing to bridge capital investment with science to create the medicines of the future."

The 628 nautical mile ocean race kicks off at 1pm on Boxing Day, 26th December 2015, you can follow the journey at:
